DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed on 12/21/05 has been fully considered and made of record in the instant application.

Drawings

2. The drawings were received on 2/13/06. These drawings are partially approved. The replacement sheet for Figs. 9 and 10 are approved but the replacement sheet for Figs. 11 and 12 are not approved since the "Prior Art" label is still missing above the figures.

3. Figures 11 and 12 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 12/21/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Weber (US 6,157,086).

With respect to Claims 1 and 2, Weber teaches a mold die comprising a first die 32 having a recess of a predetermined form and a second flat die 34. The first die to be disposed on a surface of a wiring board 14 (i.e. having a conductive pattern) by the mold compound 16, wherein the wiring board 14 has a plurality of openings 26 including a bonding opening (i.e. any opening in the substrate) and a semiconductor chip 12 mounted on the surface via an elastic material (i.e. solder bumps). The second die 34 is disposed on a back of the surface of the wiring board 14 on which the semiconductor chip 12 is mounted for sealing with an insulating resin 16 (i.e. by transfer mold process) a periphery of the semiconductor chip 12 and at least bonding opening 26 of the wiring board, wherein the second die 34 comprises a protrusion (i.e. about channel 38) disposed around an area overlapping the bonding opening 26 to be sealed with the insulating resin 16 (see col. 3 lines 20-67, col. 4 lines 1 –67, and col. 6 lines 15-20; Figs. 6-8).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Weber (US 6,157,086) as applied to claims 1 and 2 above, and further in view of the Admitted Prior Art.

With respect to Claims 3 and 4, Weber fails to disclose wherein the wiring board has a conductive pattern electrically connected to an external electrode of the semiconductor chip in the bonding opening. However, the Admitted Prior Art discloses wherein the wiring board has a conductive pattern electrically connected to an external electrode of the semiconductor chip in the bonding opening (see Figs. 9 and 10). Thus, Weber and the Admitted Prior Art have substantially the same environment of a chip mounted on a substrate that is encapsulated in a mold. Therefore, one skilled in the art at the time of the invention would readily recognize placing the chip mounted on the substrate into the mold of Weber, since the chip mounted on the substrate when placed in the mold would facilitate in the bonding opening to be completely encapsulated prevent contamination of the bonding connection.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is cited primarily to show the product of the instant invention.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
